Church-State "Hot Topics"*

Wednesday April 2, 7 PM

State Capitol, Room 4203

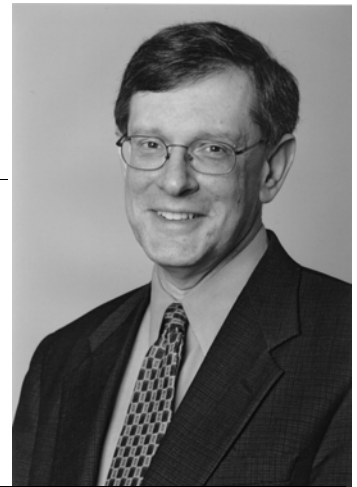

The Rev. Barry W. Lynn is the executive director of Americans United for Separation of Church and State, a position he has held since 1992. In addition to his work as an activist and lawyer in the civil liberties field, Lynn is also an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ, offering him a unique perspective on church-state issues. An accomplished speaker and lecturer, Lynn has appeared frequently on television and radio broadcasts to offer analysis of First Amendment issues.

Parking is available along 10th, L and N streets or in the garage on the corner of 10th and L (enter from 10th St.). Enter the Capitol on L St. side (across from 11th St.) just to the left of the main doors. Everyone needs to pass through security. Take the elevator banks at the left end of the main east-west corridor to the 4th floor. Turn right off the elevator; go to room 4203 (left side).
